

April 11-17, 2007

The News and Entertainment Weekly of Omaha, Lincoln & Council Bluffs

OmahaCityWeekly

CITY WEEKLY

FREE

35 music

MUSICNEWS

May day

Still presenting the best of modern folk music each week on more than 200 radio stations nationwide, Omaha-based Tom May's "River City Folk" will feature the folk of Iowa's John Watt this Sunday from 2 to 3 p.m. (on KIOS 91.5 FM in Omaha).

For the past 22 years, May has hosted the popular show. In addition to traditional radio, "River City Folk" can also be heard on XM satellite radio.

A veteran of the South By Southwest Music Festival in Austin, Texas, Watt has released a critically praised record, titled "Higher." You can hear cuts from the album on "River City Folk," or check out the band live on April 20 or 21 in Council Bluffs at Shubby's, 2400 9th Ave.

For more info surf to MySpace.com/JohnWattRocks. Be sure to check out Watt's anti-Marilyn Manson ditty "Shock Rock Queen."

CONCERT PREVIEWS, MUSICIAN PROFILES, CD REVIEWS AND MORE